Chinese Playtime — Song & Sing-Along Video Catalog

Collected Oct 20, 2026, for the Saturday Chinese class (ages 3–6) and the Cozy Bear Cottage app project. Links and metadata only — no videos downloaded.

About the creator

- Chinese Playtime is run by Kristen Czyszek, a bilingual author in Australia. Her characters are Lulu the Panda and Lenny the Koala; most songs show characters + pinyin + English on screen, and many reels star Kristen herself singing.
- Facebook Page: facebook.com/chineseplaytime — ~203K followers
- Instagram: @chinese_playtime — ~91.7K followers, 91 posts. Bio: "Learn Mandarin through songs & stories — new sing-alongs every week."
- Website: chineseplaytime.com.au — her "Lulu and Lenny Learn Chinese" books, games, free resources, and Storytime incursions for kindergartens/schools/libraries (Australia).
- Link hub: linktr.ee/chinese_playtime (from her Instagram bio — books & free resources).
- Spotify: her song album "Learn Chinese For Kids, Vol. 1" is on Spotify — announced in this reel: Instagram announcement. Handy for playing the songs in class without video.
- YouTube: no official YouTube channel for this creator could be found in search (Oct 2026) — her video library lives on Facebook and Instagram.

How this list was built: 40 Facebook reels and 71 Instagram reels were collected through the connected Meta accounts and deduplicated into the themed entries below (most songs are posted to both platforms). Roughly 32 of the 40 Facebook reels and 47 of the 71 Instagram reels are sing-alongs or song lessons; the rest are story episodes, mini-lessons and announcements. The connectors report likes/comments but not per-reel view counts — for scale, the Facebook app shows the 你好 greetings song at ~320K views and the action/clap reel at ~54.7K views. One reel visible in the app, 我上学 "I go to school" (~327K views), was not returned by the connector; the daily-routine songs below do teach 我上学 (wǒ shàngxué) as a line.

⭐ = especially good fit for ages 3–6 beginners.
